Center of Research and Documentation, WU

Your direct line to scientific information on tax law

The Center of Research and Documentation was established to assist experts working in tax practice in the area of European and International Tax Law. The Center offers its members tax-law-related information and assistance in finding specific information by means of scientific research and documentation.

In order to profit from this service, you are kindly invited to join the Center as a member!

- ⇒ Members have at their disposal experienced staff who are able to conduct research in legal databases and literature on demand, in order to explore issues you may be confronted with in tax practice.
- ⇒ The Institute for Austrian and International Tax law disposes of a renowned and excellently stocked library. Members of the Center of Research and Documentation can order articles, judgments and decrees, to be sent to them via email or fax. The library holds practically almost all Austrian, German and English-language European scientific journals in the areas of Tax Law and Economic Law. Additionally the library provides collections of domestic and international judgments as well as collections of the tax decrees of Austria and Germany.
- ⇒ Weekly newsletter and electronic database with the tables of contents of all tax journals available in the library; Online access to the database
- ⇒ Membership fee depends on the size of your company!
