Visual overview of the elements of the WU Pre-Doc Placement Program (WU PPP)

WIRTSCHAFTS UNIVERSITÄT WIEN VIENNA UNIVERSITY OF ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS

Info-Coffee or personal interview (mandatory) Presentation of the WU PPP, the detailed conditions that apply, information on the format and structure of the program by the Personnel Development team; opportunity for asking questions about program participation and sharing expectations

Peer coaching (mandatory)

The peer coaching sessions are moderated by an external coach. They give you the opportunity to discuss questions regarding challenges specific to your individual qualifications with your peers in a confidential atmosphere and on a regular basis and to develop useful strategies and solutions together. Career Talk (selforganized, mandatory) Exchange of ideas with WU or non-WU experts on personal topics and issues regarding the participant's own career.

Individual coaching (voluntary, on demand) Addressing individual questions and goals that had no place in the peer coaching sessions with the help of an external coach.

Workshops (mandatory)

Different workshops are scheduled in advance that are intended to help you get off to a good start in the academic job market after the end of your pre-doc employment and to equip you with the skills you need for an academic career.

